

IDLF INTERNATIONAL DATA LAW FORUM

15 - 17 JULY 2026 • VIENNA, AUSTRIA

Join the International Data Law Association for the 3rd annual International Data Law Forum (IDLF), where European and U.S. regulators and judges come together with leading legal, privacy, and technology practitioners to examine the latest global data laws and regulations, explore cross-border issues, and share practical strategies for what's next.

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Overview

The International Data Law Association (IDLA) will award the IDLF Fellowship to a second-year law student with a demonstrated commitment to cross-border data law. The Fellowship provides access to one of the leading global events on international data law and structured opportunities to meet recognized experts.

Eligibility

- Enrolled in an accredited J.D. program
- Completion of the second year of study by July 2026
- Demonstrated interest in cross-border data law

Award and Benefits

- Reimbursement of reasonable travel expenses to attend IDLF 2026 in Vienna, up to 2,500 USD*
- Waiver of the 995 USD conference fee

* Subject to IDLF Travel & Expense Policy

Obligations

- The Fellow must attend the full IDLF 2026 conference to remain eligible for reimbursement
- Reimbursement requires submission of itemized receipts within 30 days after the event

How to Apply

Apply via the "Fellowship" section of the website at www.IDLF.org

Application Materials

- Curriculum vitae
- One essay of 500 words or fewer that answers:
  - a. Why are you interested in cross-border data law?
  - b. How do you see cross-border data law fitting into your future practice?
  - c. What do you hope to accomplish by attending IDLF 2026 in Vienna?

Application Deadline

- 1 April 2026

Selection

Finalists will interview with members of the IDLA Board. One Fellow and one runner-up will be selected.

Travel Documentation

The Fellow is responsible for all travel documents required to enter Austria. This includes a valid passport, visa, and vaccination records where applicable.

Questions: Additional rules and regulations apply. Send inquiries to info@IDLF.org